

Sacramento
City Unified
School District

Media Release

5735 47th Avenue Sacramento, CA 95824 (916) 643-9340 (916) 643-9049 FAX

For Release
April 1, 2011

Contact: Gabe Ross
(916) 643-9145
gabe-ross@scusd.edu

SCUSD, City of Sacramento to Hold Ribbon-Cutting for Newly Upgraded Argonaut Park

Joint Venture at Evelyn Moore Center adjacent to New Tech High School

WHAT: Officials with Sacramento City Unified School District and the City of Sacramento will officially open the newly outfitted Argonaut Park located at the Evelyn Moore Community Center adjacent to Sacramento New Technology High School. The park has been furnished with state of the art Energi Fitness Course Stations for use by New Tech students and the entire community. This project was a joint venture between the City, school district and community organization Freeport Renovation on the Move and was funded, in part, through grants from Kaiser Permanente and Gift-to-Share. (Note: this event was originally scheduled for Monday, March 14 but was rescheduled due to poor weather).

WHO: Rob Fong, Sacramento City Council
Jonathan Raymond, SCUSD Superintendent
Paula Hanzel, Principal of Sacramento New Technology High School
Helen Freeny, President, Freeport Renovation on the Move
Michelle Odell, Public Affairs Director, Kaiser Permanente

WHEN: Monday, April 4, 2011
12 p.m.

WHERE: Argonaut Park at Evelyn Moore Community Center
(Adjacent to Sacramento New Technology High School)
1402 Dickson Street
Sacramento, CA 95822

#