Celebrating Trans Day of Visibility

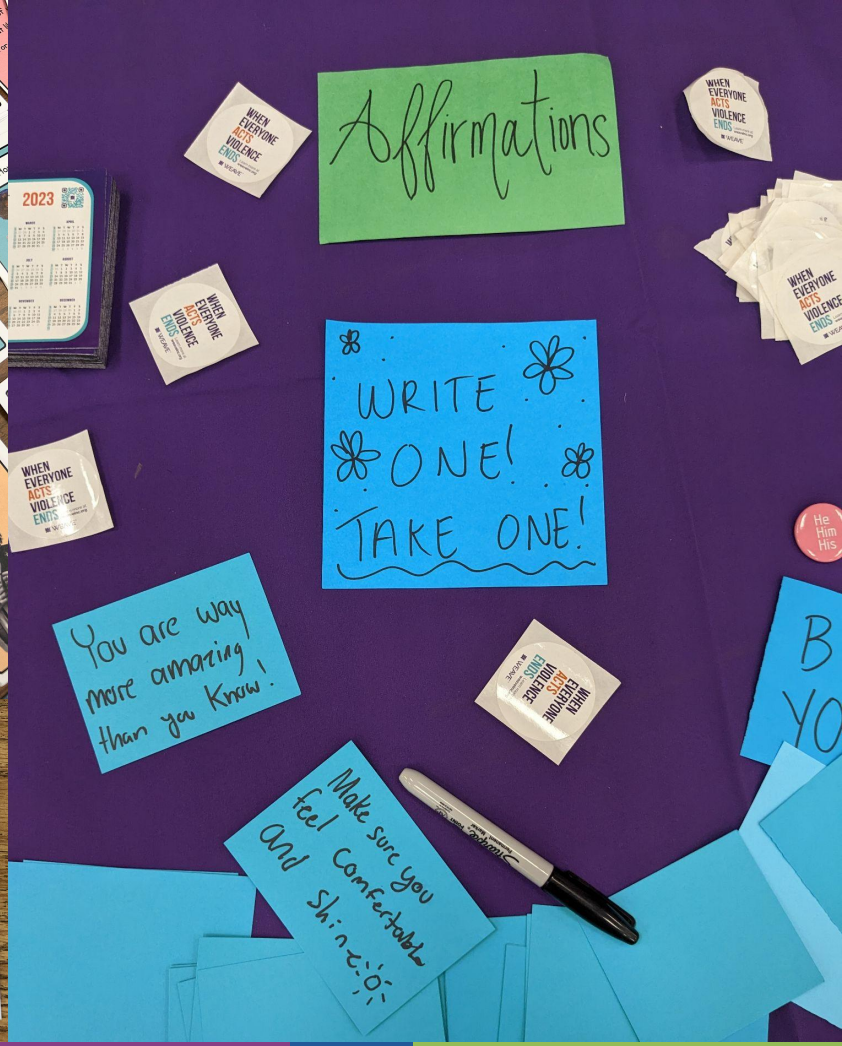

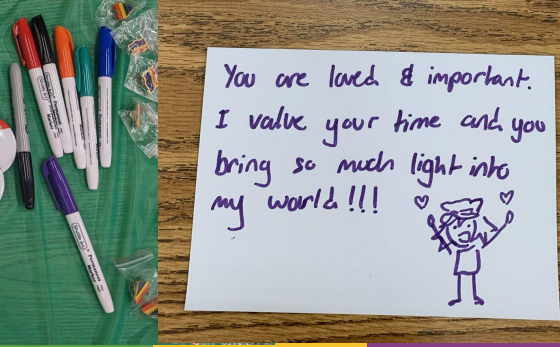

TDOV was created in 2009 to celebrate the accomplishments of transgender and non-binary people and raise awareness about the discrimination faced by the community and inspire action toward progress.

LGBTQ+ Support in Sac City

- Policies and Protections in Place
 - Preferred names/pronouns
 - Participation in sports and activities
 - Preferred restroom based on gender identity
- Expanded Gender & Sexuality Alliances (GSAs)
- Be Brave, Be You
- Gender Neutral Bathroom Cohort
- Annual Flag Raising on TDOV

Listen, you're going to be ok. Even when times get tough, you are stronger than what meets the eye, you can do this. It will take time, but despite that. I believe in:) you, you are brave.

What's Next

- Messaging that reaffirms our commitment to following state guidance and District policies
- Conduct a community webinar with legal experts to explain policies and answer questions
- Adding a second all gender restroom cohort
- Rollout S “See” USD campaign
